The Nativity of St. John the Baptist

Feast Day: June 24

Jesus called John the greatest of all those who had preceded him: "I tell you, among those born of women, no one is greater than John...." But John would have agreed completely with what Jesus added: "Yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he" (Luke 7:28). John spent his time in the desert, an ascetic. He began to announce the coming of the Kingdom, and to call everyone to a fundamental reformation of life. His purpose was to prepare the way for Jesus. His baptism, he said, was for repentance. But one would come who would baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. John was not worthy even to untie his sandals. His attitude toward Jesus was: "He must increase; I must decrease" (John 3:30). John was humbled to find among the crowd of sinners who came to be baptized the one whom he already knew to be the Messiah. "I need to be baptized by you" (Matthew 3:14b). But Jesus insisted, "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness" (Matthew 3:15b). Jesus, true and humble human as well as eternal God, was eager to do what was required of any good Jew. Jesus thus publicly entered the community of those awaiting the Messiah. But making himself part of that community, he made it truly messianic. The greatness of John, his pivotal place in the history of salvation, is seen in the great emphasis Luke gives to the announcement of his birth and the event itself—both made prominently parallel to the same occurrences in the life of Jesus.

John attracted countless people to the banks of the Jordan, and it occurred to some people that he might be the Messiah. But he constantly deferred to Jesus, even to sending away some of his followers to become the first disciples of Jesus. Perhaps John's idea of the coming of the Kingdom of God was not being perfectly fulfilled in the public ministry of Jesus. For whatever reason, when he was in prison he sent his disciples to ask Jesus if he was the Messiah. Jesus' answer showed that the Messiah was to be a figure like that of the Suffering Servant in Isaiah. John himself would share in the pattern of messianic suffering, losing his life to the revenge of Herodias.

Reflection

John challenges us Christians to the fundamental attitude of Christianity—total dependence on the Father, in Christ. Except for the Mother of God, no one had a higher function in the unfolding of salvation. Yet the least in the kingdom, Jesus said, is greater than he, for the pure gift that the Father gives. The attractiveness as well as the austerity of John, his fierce courage in denouncing evil—all stem from his fundamental and total placing of his life within the will of God.

Fathers are the link between heaven and earth and are intended to be an image of our Heavenly Father. Drawing on the examples of St. Joseph, Devin Schadt shows us how to become a father on earth like our Father in heaven. Devin is a husband, a father of five, and the co-founder of the Fathers of St. Joseph, an apostolate dedicated to the renewal of authentic fatherhood.

Share Your Soles and Help Keep a Dream Alive

This is an appeal to all parishioners to please consider helping. Pete Eke is an OLV parishioner and an EOU student and member of the Men's Basketball team. Before coming to America he was unable to purchase basketball shoes; he received his first pair at a locally hosted basketball camp in Nigeria. After feeling so blessed he came up with a shoe drive called "Share Your Soles and Help Keep a Dream Alive" campaign platform with the purpose of giving back, serving and motivating campers on the importance of dreaming and working hard towards that dream. This shoe drive will benefit Nigerian students/athletes during a 4-day basketball camp in his home town of Enugu, Nigeria. The camp is scheduled to take place in July 2018. Any form of support towards this project whether thought donations of funds, shoes (new or gently used) are greatly appreciated. The funds raised from this campaign will be used to ship the shoes collected from the shoe drive as well as hospitality for the campers and other things that may be needed. If you would like to make a donation you can go to www.gofundme.com/keeping-dreams-alive-through-soles If you have any other questions or would like to bring in donations; please contact Nancy Beem at 541-786-9741
