The Privilege of Adoration

While many parishes do not have adoration, OLV has been blessed to have Adoration continuously since 2000. Often when people are thinking of moving to La Grande and are learning about the parish, they ask if we have adoration.
People in the parish value it because, as one person said,
"When you love someone, you want to spend time with them. Adoration gives me face-to-face time with Jesus."
One of the most famous stories about the Curé d'Ars is about someone who came to him as he sat at the back of the Church before the Blessed Sacrament, and when this person asked "What are you doing?" he answered, "Nothing. I just look at Him and He looks at me." John Vianney knew the beauty of true friendship - just to be with the beloved was all he asked. And this time with Jesus gave him the strength and wisdom he needed to do God's will – something we all need!

All Souls Remembrance

Please plan to attend the joint Catholic-Lutheran Prayer Service at Zion Lutheran Church Sunday, November 12, 3 pm. The service was prepared by Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity and the Lutheran World Federation for the commemoration of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Bishop Cary has approved parish participation in this ecumenical experience.

Through the Liturgical Year: The Dedication of St. John Lateran

As you know each diocese has both a bishop and a cathedral. Our bishop is Bishop Cary, and the cathedral is St. Francis de Sales in Baker. As you know, the pope is the bishop of Rome. Do you know what the cathedral of Rome is? It is not St. Peter's! The cathedral of the diocese of Rome and the chair of the Bishop of Rome is St. John Lateran. Because the Bishop of Rome is head of all the bishops, this church, his cathedral is known as "The mother and head of all churches of the city and of the world." The feast of the Dedication of St. John Lateran was originally celebrated just in Rome, but in 1565, the feast was extended to the whole Church as a sign of love for and union with the See of Peter.

When celebrating this feast in 2008, Pope Benedict XVI wrote, Dear friends, today's feast celebrates a mystery that is always relevant: God's desire to build a spiritual temple in the world, a community that worships him in spirit and truth (cf. John 4:23-24). But this observance also reminds us of the importance of the material buildings in which the community gathers to celebrate the praises of God. Every community therefore has the duty to take special care of its own sacred buildings, which are a precious religious and historical patrimony. For this we call upon the intercession of Mary Most Holy, that she help us to become, like her, the "house of God," living temple of his love.

The Feast of the Dedication of St. John Lateran is celebrated on November 9. It gives us a great opportunity to reflect on the reverence we show for the Church, for our material support of the maintenance of the Church building, and for our respect for the Holy Father and the teachings of the Church.

Get FORMED — Rome Sweet Home Our Journey to Catholicism

This book tells the conversion story of Scott and Kimberly Hahn. Scott Hahn was a Presbyterian minister, the top student in his seminary class, a brilliant Scripture scholar, and militantly anti-Catholic ... until he reluctantly began to discover that his "enemy" had all the right answers. Kimberly, also a top-notch theology student in the seminar and the daughter of a well-known Protestant minister, went through a tremendous "dark night of the soul" after Scott converted to Catholicism. Their conversion story and love for the Church is written with simplicity, charity, grace, and wit, and the Hahns' deep love and knowledge of Christ and of Scripture is evident and contagious throughout their story. Their love of truth and of neighbor is equally evident, and their theological focus on the great importance of the family, both biological and spiritual, will be a source of inspiration for all readers. It has captured the hearts and minds of thousands of lukewarm Catholics and brought them back into an active participation in the Church. They have also influenced countless conversions to Catholicism among their friends and others who have heard their powerful testimony.
