Monday, January 1: Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God

While January 1, the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God, is a holy day of obligation, the US Bishops have waived the obligation when it falls on a Saturday or Monday. Though attendance is not an obligation this year, honoring Mary's motherhood of Jesus is a wonderful way to start the new year. Mass is at 10 am only; there is no 8 am Mass.

Mary of Nazareth, an epic movie on the life of Mary, from her childhood through the Resurrection of Jesus, is available on FORMED.org. The film vividly capture the essence of Mary's profound faith and trust in God amidst the great mysteries she lived as Jesus's mother as well as her compassion and love for others. See FORMED.org!

Living the Liturgical Year: Feast of the Holy Family

Sometimes it can seem like holiness in family life is impossible because of the challenges of human nature, the demands on time, and social pressures. The Holy Family provides a model and an ideal for families, and today's Feast of the Holy Family is an opportunity to stop and reflect on the importance of our family life and to pray for the strengthen of families and the support of families in today's society.

In reflecting on the Gospels, we see Jesus briefly as a baby, and as a 12-year old boy, and then we see his three years of public ministry. While we don't have the details of those years before his public ministry, but he lived 30 of his 33 year of human life in the quiet, hidden reality of everyday family life. God could have determined that he should appear as a man, but in his wisdom God sent his Son as a baby. Jesus, who is like us in all things but sin, experienced the fullness of human experience, including the humble dependence on his mother and father for care and protection, his being instructed by them, being obedient to them, and growing in strength and wisdom (cf. Lk 2:40, 51-52). Through his coming into a family and living many years within that family, Jesus emphasizes the importance of family and its role in the sanctification of family members. These hidden years are an important witness to the value of family life. The life of the Holy Family provides a witness of what we can aspire to and work towards in our family life. One author suggests using the acronym F.A.M.I.L.Y to help families grow in holiness.

F — Faith. Strength faith in the family by going to Mass together every week and going to confession regularly as well reading books, listen to audios, and watching movies that help faith mature.

A — Apostolate. Share your faith. It is important to give both as individuals and as a family. How do you share the Good News? How do you serve through the corporal and spiritual works of mercy? Is your life a witness of Jesus?

M — Mary. Get to know Mary as your mother. Pray the Rosary as a family as praying as a family before meals, at bedtime, and in the morning.

I — Imitate. Dads should imitate St. Joseph as the spiritual leaders of the family. Moms should imitate Mary in her compassion and love. Children should imitate Jesus's respect and obedience for his parents.

L — Love. Accept, encourage, and support one another. Welcome others in loving hospitality.

Y — Year 2017. Resolve to make this year a year of spiritual growth for your family. (see epicpew.com/holiness-family)
