Please respond generously when you are asked to make your pledge. For more information, please visit the diocesan website.

Blessing of Homes

The Easter season continues from the Easter Vigil through Pentecost Sunday. This is a season of joy and thanksgiving, of "exaltation at the triumph of Jesus over sin and death" (CatholicCulture.org). This season of rejoicing is one of the traditional times when homes are blessed. If you would like your home blessed — even if it has been blessed in the past — please contact Fr. Saji to schedule a time to have your home blessed. It is a great opportunity for families to welcome Fr. Saji into their home, especially so that the kids have the opportunity to interact with a priest a get to know him.

The Carpet is In!

We had a goal of having the new carpet installed by Easter, and thanks to the both the generosity of donors and the generosity of those who worked so hard to prepare the Church for the installation, we were able to meet that goal. Thank you to the many, many workers who helped — some worked many days, other came one day, but all were essential to the success and timely completion of the project. The project could not have been done without each and everyone of you.
THANK YOU!

And so is New Vinyl!

As you may have noticed, not only did we install the carpet, we installed new vinyl under the pews. Originally, we had planned to delay this part of the project, but the experts recommended that it be done at the same time as the carpet for the best installation, so we decided to go ahead with it at the same time. We did incur an expense of $7,000 above the original estimate, and that will be paid from the parish savings account. However, if you would like to donate to defray this expense, your assistance would be appreciated.

Celebrating the Saints

The Arian heresy, which had to do with the divinity of Christ, was very widespread in the 4th century. St. Athanasius, bishop, saint, and doctor of the Church, battled ceaselessly against what must have seemed almost insurmountable opposition as he strove to protect the Church's understanding of the Trinity. The Athanasian Creed (sometimes used on Trinity Sunday though rarely at other times) contains a detailed meditation on the Trinity. Celebrate St. Athanasius' feast day May 2 by reading it here:
