Celebrating the Liturgical Year Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross

When we make the sign of the cross, we are saying a prayer. It is the first prayer many Catholics learn. Parents bless their children with it, and toddlers try to emulate their parents. It is perhaps the most frequently prayed prayer because it is prayed as we enter and leave Church, as we begin and end Mass, and as we begin and end other prayers. As we make the Sign of the Cross and say, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," we are affirming our belief in the Trinity and in Christ's saving work on the Cross. We mark ourselves as Christians and profess our belief.

On September 14, we celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. This feast has also been known as the Feast of the Triumph of the Cross and the Feast of the Elevation of the Cross. Two events are celebrated on this feast day. The first is the discovery and recovery of the True Cross by St. Helena, the mother of the Emperor Constantine, and the other, the dedication of the basilica and shrine built on Calvary by Constantine to mark the site of the Crucifixion. This basilica was destroyed and was later replaced by the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. In both cases, while the focus is on the physical, material location of the Cross or the Cross itself, what we are really celebrating is Christ's saving death on the Cross and His Resurrection, which opened the doors of heaven.

The entrance antiphon for this feast reads, "We should glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, for he is our salvation, our life and our resurrection: through him we are saved and made free."

Corporal Works of Mercy: Feed the Hungry

Most requests for food are from people who have very limited cooking facilities — often just a microwave. Your contributions of food that can be eaten with minimal preparation (for example, heating in the microwave) would be a great help. Our cupboard is almost bare. Some disposable bowls and plastic flatware would also be a help.

Jesus was asked, "Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You drink?" He answered, "Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me."(Mt. 25:38, 41)

Natalia Robles

Acolyte: Patrick Smith

Eucharistic Ministers: Jim Wimer, Carol Wimer,
Efrain Villagomez, Lupe Villagomez

All Eucharistic Ministers, Readers, and Altar Servers please meet in the sacristy 15 minutes before Mass begins.

Sacramental Preparation Meeting

There will be a meeting for youth who will be preparing for sacraments this year (First Reconciliation, First Communion, and Confirmation) and their parents on Sunday, October 1 during the regularly scheduled youth session after the 10 am Mass.

Get FORMED

Saint Helena and the True Cross by Louise de Wohl is a book for youth, but it can be enjoyed by all ages. Set against the colorful background of power struggles in imperial Rome and battling Roman legions, this is the exciting story of St. Helena, mother of the Emperor Constantine, who found the Cross of Christ in Jerusalem. Describing the amazing events that led to the conversion of Helena and the rise to power of her son, Constantine, it recounts the vision Constantine experienced on the eve of a pivotal battle and his subsequent legalization of Christianity in the fourth century. The story dramatically concludes with St. Helena's final accomplishment—her dangerous and miraculous expedition to the Holy Land which led to the discovery and recovery of the True Cross. This book, paints a vivid portrait of a remarkable woman who overcame every obstacle with faith, hope, perseverance, and a healthy dose of ambition.

Marriage and Family Conference Volunteers

We would like to have volunteers from all three parishes to help with the Marriage and Family Conference in October. Please contact Amanda at avillago-mez@olvcatholic.org if you are interested in serving.

Dish Pick-up

There are many dishes & pans left in the kitchen that were brought to the hall for funeral meals or potlucks. If you left one of these items, please pick it up as soon as possible. We are getting quite a pile with no room to put them.

Please Pray for the Repose of the Soul of Joetta Smith
