The Feast of Divine Mercy

Among all of the elements of devotion The Divine Mercy requested by our Lord through Sr. Faustina, the Feast of Mercy holds first place. The Lord's will with regard to its establishment was already made known in His first revelation to the saint. In all, there were 14 revelations concerning the desired feast. Once after insisting, "Do all you possibly can for this work of mercy", Jesus added: "My Heart rejoices on account of this feast". Sister Faustina concluded: "After these words, I understood that nothing can dispense me from the obligation which the Lord demands of me." Our Lord's explicit desire is that this feast be celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. He joins the feast to the designated Sunday in eight revelations. He also implies a connection between the feast and that Sunday on some other occasions recorded in the Saint's diary. The "First Sunday after Easter", which is designated in "The Liturgy of the Hours and the Celebration of the Eucharist" as the "Octave Day of Easter", was officially called the Second Sunday of Easter after the Liturgical reform of Vatican II. Now, by the Decree of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, the name of this liturgical day has been changed to: "Second Sunday of Easter, or of Divine Mercy". A Special Promise of Mercy: Our Lord's promise to grant complete forgiveness of sins and punishment on the Feast of Mercy is recorded three times in the Diary of Saint Faustina, each time in a slightly different way: "I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy". "Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment". "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment". Thus, to fittingly observe the Feast of Mercy, we should: 1. Celebrate the Feast on the Sunday after Easter. 2. Sincerely Repent of all our sins. 3. Turst, place your complete trust in Jesus. 4. Go to Confession, preferably before Sunday. 5. Receive Holy Communion on the day of the Feast. 6. Venerate the Image of Divine Mercy. 7. Be merciful to others, through our actions, word, and prayers on their behalf.
