Welcome

We extend a special welcome to those that are passing through, those that have made this their home and those still searching for their parish family. We are glad you are here and celebrating God's word and presence with us in today's Eucharistic celebration.

Is Your Home Blessed?

Blessing your home is a great way to invite your family and friends to celebrate the many blessings of God and to share your Catholic faith. It is also a great opportunity for families to welcome Fr. Saji into their home, especially so that the kids have the opportunity to interact with a priest and get to know him in an informal setting. If you would like your home blessed — even if it has been blessed in the past — please call the parish office or contact Fr. Saji to schedule a time for him to visit and bless your home.

Bible Study

Bible study will be off for the summer, but will resume with the study on the Gospel of Luke on Thursday, Sep. 13.

Celebrating the Saints: St. Mary Magdalene

Mary Magdalene has long been recognized as a witness to the transformative power of Christ's mercy and forgiveness.

Western tradition has identified her as the sister of Martha and Lazarus as well the woman who anointed Jesus's feet at the home of Simon the Pharisee. She was also the first to see the resurrected Christ, and she took the lead of the resurrection to the apostles. Last year, Pope Francis emphasized her important role by elevating her feast day to the same status as the other apostles. St. Thomas Aquinas called Mary Magdalene the "Apostle to the Apostles," and in the decree regarding her feast, it was said, "The Angelic Doctor is right to apply this term to Mary Magdalene: she is the witness to the Risen Christ and announces the message of the resurrection of the Lord, like the other apostles. Therefore it is right that the liturgical celebration of this woman should have the same level of festivity given to the apostles in the General Roman Calendar, and that the special mission of this woman be highlighted, as an example and model to every woman in the Church." We celebrate her feast day on July 22, and on this day we can reflect on our own experiences of Christ's love and forgiveness as well as our response. This same degree states, "St. Mary Magdalene is an example of true and authentic evangelization" and states, "This importance remains in today's Church – as shown by the current commitment to a new evangelization – which seeks to welcome, without distinction, men and women of any race, people, language and nation, to proclaim to them the good news of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage and to offer them the wonders of God's salvation. "

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK The Suitcase

Zeal and excitement are a part of every child. This picture book celebrates a young boy's enthusiasm to put into practice the words of Christ: to feed and clothe the poor, help the needy, and love one's neighbor. As Thomas shows his family the items he has packed into his suitcase after hearing a stirring homily at church, they marvel at his inventiveness and loving heart—he is traveling to the Kingdom of Heaven, and he knows what it takes to get there! Thomas and his family figure out a way, with his suitcase, to accomplish the goal that Thomas is so excited about: to arrive at the Kingdom.

Community Help: Donations Unlimited

To donate household items, linens, clothing, lamps & microwaves please call Linda Williams at 541-963-2282.

Joke of The Week!

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic elementary school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large pile of apples. The nun made a note, and posted on the apple tray, "Take only one. God is watching." Moving further along the lunch line, at the other end of the table was a large pile of chocolate chip cookies. One child whispered to another, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples."
