Jokes of the Week

The definition of a good sermon: It should have a good beginning and a good ending and they should be as close together as possible.

A pastor was greeting folks at the door after the service. A woman said, Father, that was a very good sermon. The pastor says, Oh, I have to give the credit to the Holy Spirit. It wasn't THAT good! she says.

A priest, whose sermons were very long and boring, announced in the Church on a Sunday that he had been transferred to another Church and that it was Jesus wish that he leave that week. The congregation in the Church got up and sang: What a Friend we have in Jesus!

Thank You

From the bottom of our hearts my family and I would like to thank each and everyone of you for your support and your kind words during this trying time. Without it, I don't know how I would have made it through. Most importantly thank you for your continued prayers for my father and myself. May God meet each and everyone of you in your time of need.

- Nancy De Anda

But truly God has listened; he has attended to the voice of my prayer.

-Psalm 66:19

Altar Servers Needed

The honor of being an altar server is open to any boy or girl who has received their first communion and up to the age of 18. In his August 1, 2011, address to altar servers, Pope John Paul II said, "Your commitment to the altar is not only a duty but a great honor, a true holy service...The altar server has a privileged place in liturgical celebrations. Those who serve at Mass present themselves to a community. They experience from close at hand that Jesus Christ is present and active in every liturgy...Therefore in the liturgy you are far more than mere "helpers of the parish priest." Above all, you are servants of Jesus Christ, the eternal High Priest." We invite you to serve God and people as an altar server in our church. It is a great honor to serve God on the altar. Fr. Saji is planning a training, date to be announced. Call the office to sign-up or speak with Fr. Saji.
