Oct. 11, 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

The king said to him, "My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?" But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, "Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth." Many are invited, but few are chosen (Mt 22:12-14).

Collect Prayer

May your grace, O Lord, we pray, at all times go before us and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

19th Sunday after Pentecost

"Go therefore to the crossroads, and invite whomever you shall find."
(Gospel).

We approach the end of the Church's year. We, too, have grown to maturity. In our youth we regarded perfection an easy accomplishment. Now we plead for Redemption. We implore His Mercy to direct our hearts (Prayer) in the evening of our life (Offertory).

Our plea today is: Give peace, O Lord. What is the condition for peace with neighbor, peace amongst nations? It is a call to set ourselves right with God!

Are we ambassadors of peace to others? The paralytic was unable to do anything for himself. Did not Jesus cure him, absolve him, only when his friends brought him and He saw their faith? ?

Pope Francis Reflections

-The Hardest Stone-

"Only God knows the history of people and how many times people who have already given their lives, or who have died, continue to be scourged with the hardest stone that exists in the world: the tongue." — Pope Francis

Reflection:

Think about how you talk about others. Are there times when your words are like stones that beat someone down? If not, what helps you avoid doing this? If yes, what is at the root of choosing to harm another in this way and how might God help you heal this practice?
