Oct. 25, 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments" (Mt 22:34-40).

Collect Prayer

Almighty ever-living God, increase our faith, hope and charity, and make us love what you command, so that we may merit what you promise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Christ the King

"He shall rule. . . unto the ends of the earth. . . All kings. . . shall adore Him, all nations shall serve Him"(Gradual).

The "modern" man acts as "monarch of all he surveys" in the study of science, the enjoyment of pleasure, the worship of the State.

Yet we are not the creators of our resources but only the beneficiaries of the Creator. This Feast reaffirms that the wounds in the families of nations are caused by sin, namely, the abuse of these borrowed gifts; that all things (must be) restored in (Christ)" (Prayer).

Jesus alone has the right, well earned, as the Redeeming Lamb Who was slain (Introit), to be King over all the earth (Gradual); to be King of Truth in our minds (Gospel); to be King of our wills under the standard of His Law (Post-Communion); to be King of Love in our hearts (Epistle).

The Lord will bless His people with peace (Communion verse) only when they accept Him as King.

PUT NOT YOUR TRUST IN PRINCES BY CHRISTOPHER CHECK
Speaking from his perspective as a historian, Christopher Check reminds us that the crisis of our age is cultural and, in the end, spiritual. He explains that a flourishing society is not achieved through legislation or at the ballot box, but instead radiates from the family out.

Pope Francis Reflections

-Jesus is our humanism-

“We must not domesticate the power of the face of Christ. His face is the image of his transcendence. It is the misericordiae vultus [divine mercy]. Let us allow ourselves to be looked at by him. Jesus is our humanism. Let us always be unsettled by his question: ‘who do you say that I am?’ (Mt 16:15).” – Pope Francis

Reflection:

Who do you say Jesus is by your words and your actions, by your attitudes and beliefs? Does your face reflect Christ, the divine mercy?
