No Mass on Monday

There will be no 8:00am Mass on Monday, May 13th, but Adoration will take place as usual, starting at 9:00am.

Congratulations!

A Prayer for All Our OLV Grads

Blessed are you, O Lord our God, for You begin all things and bring them to conclusion.

We praise You for our graduates:

You have guided them to this proud moment.

As we celebrate their graduations, we ask You to continue Your gracious guidance in their lives.

Open new doors and lead them to marvel at the wonders of creation and life.

May the Holy Spirit help them to see their many gifts, and teach them how to share these in Your Church and for the benefit of others.

Be strong and keep the charge of the Lord your God, walking in His ways and keeping His statutes, His commandments, His ordinances, and His testimonies that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn.

-1Kings 2:2-3

Amen

The Knights Guy Yard Sale is Back and the Proceeds Go Towards an Ultrasound Machine

The Guy Yard Sale will take place on Friday and Saturday, next week, June 17th & 18th, starting at 8:00am each day and running through the early afternoon. The Knights are looking for donated items that can be placed in the breezeway between the rectory and the church any time. The Knights are hoping for shop tools; yard tools and equipment; vintage items i.e. car parts; boots; coats or coveralls; sports equipment; camping equipment; furniture; etc.

No clothing, please.

The Knights of Oregon are committed to helping purchase an ultrasound machine for a pregnancy center somewhere in the State to help expectant mothers make an informed decision about the life inside them. There is no more effective tool for saving lives from abortion than ultrasound. The Knights of Our Lady of the Valley have pledged $1000 towards the purchase of an imaging machine. The Yard Sale proceeds will go to this worthwhile project. Donation tax receipts available, call the Office for more info.

Thank-you Knights for your hard work and to all those who donate items.

TRINITY SUNDAY

There is one God and in this one God are three Divine Persons

Trinity Sunday

The dogma of faith which forms the object of this feast as follows:

There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say:

Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world as to give His only-begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions. After Christ's ascension the Holy Spirit, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler. On solemn occasions a thanksgiving Te Deum (we praise Thee, O God) rises spontaneously from Christian hearts.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity may well be regarded as the Church's Te Deum of gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons; for this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that actually every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God. Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Blessed Trinity is bestowing upon us. The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the "Day of the Lord," the day of His resurrection. The Holy Spirit sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday the Holy Spirit descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.

What is the Collect?

The collect (pronounced KOL-ekt) is a prayer that concludes the opening rites of the Mass: the entrance hymn, the Sign of the Cross, the greeting, the Penitential Act, the Gloria, and finally the Collect.

The Collect invites people to pray in silence for a moment, and then offers a prayer to God that is drawn from the Readings of Feast of the day, or the purpose for which the Mass is being offered.

The Collect for Trinity Sunday:

God our Father, Who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race Your wondrous Mystery, grant us, we pray that in professing the true faith we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore Your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

The past Weekly Collection Reports will be posted soon. They will cover all the weeks that we have not been able to include them in the bulletin. Thank-you for your patience!
