In May of this year, you will be able to participate personally in the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage. On Memorial Day weekend Bishop Cary will meet the pilgrimage from San Francisco at the Nevada-Oregon border and accompany the Blessed Sacrament to Burns and Ontario. From there the procession will continue over the border to Idaho. I invite all of you to join hundreds of fellow Northwest Catholics in welcoming the Eucharistic Lord as He passes through our state on his way to the National Eucharistic Congress in Indiana. You can access all the details of the pilgrimage route on the diocesan website. Bishop Cary also encourages all parishioners to join in the 9-Month National Novena to Our Lady of Guadalupe starting this month of March. For more information please go to DioceseOfBaker.org.
